COUNTY'S FIRE INSURANCE IS BEING STUDIED

The Adams County commissioners this morning spent most of their meetings at the courthouse discussing the fire insurance on the county's more than $1,250,000 worth of property.

William Wilson Jr., Harrisburg, superintendent of the fire underwriters for Aetna Co., and Harry D. Ridinger were among those meeting with the commissioners to go over the entire value of the county's property and make suggestions as to methods to decrease the annual amount paid for insurance.

The commissioners found the courthouse, new county home and jail could come under an institutional rate, while the Topper building, since it is not occupied by the county, and the old county home, since it is not occupied at the rate.

DISCUSS COVERAGE

Much of the discussion was on whether the buildings should be covered 100 per cent, 80 per cent or some smaller amount based upon the expected loss in event of fire. The question was also raised as to whether the county commissioners, since their terms end each four years, could take advantage of lowered rates brought about by long term insurance coverage, paying on a three- or five-year basis.

The commissioners this morning signed the last papers to secure for the county the final $21,116.70 due from the federal government's Hill-Burton funds toward construction of the county home. The amount will bring to $125,000 the sum received from the federal government toward the construction. The new home, construction plus architect's fees, landscaping and all other costs, cost the county $400,000. Furnishings cost $78,000 and in addition an estimated $5,000 worth of equipment such as the chapel have been donated to the home.

JESTER TO RETIRE

County aid totaling $1,725.20 was granted to Littlestown for street construction.

The county received word that the term of W. Clayton Jester as a member of the county Soil Conservation District expires January 1 and asked the county to appoint a successor. Farm organizations in the county will be asked to nominate choices for the

TELLS LEAGUE OF TRAVELING TO MANY LANDS

Mrs. William Work, Harrisburg, who has traveled extensively, gave an interesting address Tuesday afternoon at the first fall meeting of the Gettysburg sub-league of the Woman's League of Gettysburg College, with about 65 persons attending.

Mrs. Chan Coulter, program chairman, introduced Mrs. Work. She said that prior to leaving this country on one of her trips, she and her husband were required to get 12 different "shots" to protect them from diseases. Before entering some countries, they needed a letter either from their minister stating they were of the gentle faith (for admittance to the Arab countries only), or from a doctor certifying that we "had no loathsome diseases, or from the chief of police that we had no police record."

Mr. and Mrs. Work have made three extensive trips, the first, a six-month trip, was by air covering 35 countries. Before leaving they studied the religions of the world. The second trip took three months and the last four months. On the last trip they traveled in 20 different types of aircraft, on 25 different airlines and 54 flights. While traveling Mrs. Work collected many interesting souvenirs which she displayed.

INTERESTING PLACES

The most interesting places, she said, were Borneo and New Guinea, where the natives live in diars or longhouses, housing as many as 700 people. When a new family is started another room is added to the longhouse. The color of the grass skirts of some natives designated their tribe.

Some of the countries visited by Mr. and Mrs. Work were Burma, India, Australia, China, Japan, Borneo, New Guinea, the

The Adams County Committee for the observance of United Nations Week, October 22 to 28, today announced three motion pictures which it can provide to any school, club or church desiring to conduct a U.N. program this month.

All three films are in sound and color and will be furnished free to any organization having available a 16 millimeter sound projector and an experienced projectionist.

Those wishing the films should contact the Rev. Charles E. Held, 945 Highland Ave., telephone ED 4-1766, to schedule the films. Those who write should list a first and second preference for films in case dates conflict with other demands.

ON THREE U.N. PHASES

The films include "Workshop for Peace," a 29-minute film available from October 15 through 27 which gives a complete tour of the U.N. headquarters in New York including the meeting halls of the General Assembly, the Trusteeship Council, the Economic and Social Council and the Security Council. It also shows the General Assembly in action and how the secretary-general and the U.N. staff carry on day-to-day activities.

"Three of Our Children," a 30-minute film, shows how the United Nations Children's Fund (UNICEF) brings food, clothing, health and comfort to three children, one in Europe, another in Africa and the third in the Far East. It is narrated by James Mason, and will be available from October 15 to 19.

The third film, "Real Aims of UNESCO," is in black and white, runs 28 minutes and will be available from October 15 to 27. ## BREAM URGES QUICK WORK IN CHEST DRIVE

The kickoff meeting of the special gifts division of the Community Chest was held Tuesday evening in the Hotel Gettysburg, and Chairman Henry T. Bream urged his workers to "get out as soon as you can and get over the top."

Bream said that the budget this year was up $1,600 and the burden of this increase "usually rests upon this division." He urged the committee to "get your job done before October 27, when the residential drive begins."

The packets for the collectors were distributed and Bream explained the collection card system and the extra cards in the packet. Included in each of the packets are the stickers, red feather lapel pins and solicitor information.

DINNER OCT. 27

Houston announced that the residential kickoff dinner will be held October 27 in the Methodist Church. William F. McIntyre, president of the Pennsylvania United Fund and the Talon and Zipper Corp., will be the principal speaker. The dinner will be financed jointly by the Gettysburg National Bank and the First National Bank of Gettysburg.

Houston praised Bream for the "great deal of time and effort he put forth in this drive." He also told the members that this division of the drive can "make or break the campaign." He urged them to complete their work as soon as possible and make this a 100 per cent year.

Milk In School Saves $21,984.31

Adams County public school children saved their mothers and dads $21,984.31 last year by buying and drinking their milk in schools. The cash saving resulted from milk dealers providing schools with milk at prices far below those charged out of school consumers. Additional subsidies from the Federal government for milk over and above that served with lunches allowed children to buy milk at prices averaging less than five cents a half pint.

Last year children in the public school system drank 1,465,621 half pints of milk according to Clyde Zehner, supervisor of the school milk and lunch program, Pennsylvania Department of Public Instruction. The same milk for which schools paid $73,281.05, would have cost $102,593.47 or $21,984.31 more if milk dealers had sold the milk at usual prices. An average of six cents per quart was saved through the milk dealer discount.

May Agree On Temporary Secretary-General Of U.N.

By TOM HOGE

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Prospects appeared a little brighter today for East-West agreement on naming a U.N. secretary-general.

Informed sources voiced guarded optimism that a formula might be announced soon — perhaps when Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko meets Secretary of State Dean Rusk in Washington later this week.

Soviet delegates were giving the impression that their only demand on the naming of a temporary successor to the late Dag Hammarskjöld is that he be screened by the Security Council, where the Soviet Union holds the veto power.

But if the selection is left to the General Assembly alone, as advocated by some Western nations, the Soviet Union will refuse

IMPROVEMENT OF OLD DORM IS PUSHED BY HISTORIANS

Greatly pleased with an inspection tour of their newly decorated and improved quarters in the Old Dorm on the Lutheran Theological Seminary campus, the members of the Adams County Historical Society Tuesday evening voted further improvements as soon as funds are available.

Financed almost entirely by special donations, the society has spent nearly $2,500 on exterior and interior improvements to the building and voted approval of an executive board recommendation that a large meeting room be created on the ground floor of the 130-year-old structure by removing two partitions.

The society holds a 39-year lease on the building from the seminary and already has redecorated and arranged historical displays in a half dozen first-floor rooms.

GAIN OLD FILES

With Associate Judge Clarence Deardorff presiding Tuesday evening, 30 members of the society gathered in the Dr. William M. Kemp memorial room, provided a century or more ago by St. Mark's Lutheran Church and Sunday School in Baltimore and identified by a brass memorial plate on the door.

Another room has been equipped as a work room and office, another houses old newspaper files and society minutes revealed the county commissioners have given the society custody of all its old files of newspapers up to 1940. Still another room is being used to house Indian collections and there will be a Civil War room, a county history room and another display devoted entirely to minerals and mining in the county.

Besides cash, George Olinger, who has headed the restoration work at the Old Dorm, said the society needs bookcases, rugs, lamps, chairs — and more money.

INJURED YOUTH RESCUED FROM MOUNTAIN CAVE

RISEING FAWN, Ga. (AP) — Rescue workers, inching their way through a treacherous mountain cave, brought to the surface about dawn today an injured teenage boy who had been trapped overnight.

The youth, Ronnie Reese, 15, did not appear to be in serious condition from his ordeal. He was taken to a nearby hospital.

"We had to have an awful lot of help from the Man upstairs to get this boy out," commented weary Charles McGuire, chief of operations of the Civil Defense rescue unit from Chattanooga, Tenn., about 30 miles northeast of this remote, mountain section of Georgia.

FELL IN CREVASSE

Reese fell into a crevasse in the cave shortly after dark Tuesday while he, his brother, Byron, and two other teen-age boys were exploring the cave near the top of Fox Mountain.

He was trapped on a ledge 50 feet below the cave's main floor about 10 hours before rescue workers managed to bring him up. Then it took another grueling two hours to reach the cave exit, about a half-mile away.

Rescue operations were hampered by loose rocks and some big boulders around the top of the crevasse where Ronnie fell. Members of the rescue unit said they were frightened once when a few small rocks started falling. But no big ones tumbled down.

The boy was unconscious much of the time during the rescue operation.

BOUND TO STRETCHER

Rescue workers swaddled him in padding, blankets and jackets and put a helmet on his head before they bound him to a stretcher for the trip outside.

They reported portions of the cave were so small that much of the time they had to pass the stretcher from one man to another. One of the men crawled out of the cave with the stretcher on his back.

Two Associated Press newsmen helped carry the stretcher the mile down the mountainside over the brushy, pine-thicket terrain to a truck.

At one time about 50 persons huddled around two fires, but when the rescue was completed only four men, including Ronnie's father, were on hand.

There were no cheers. Just relief.

88 STRANDED CALIFORNIANS FACE LONG WAIT

By HAL R. COOPER

LONDON (AP)—A charter plane party of 88 stranded Californians was told today it faced an indefinite wait for the flight home. The group is the second left without transportation by the same charter airline within a week.

The Californians, members of the British-American Club of Los Angeles, were scheduled to take off from Gatwick Airport Tuesday afternoon. Their plane, operated by President Airlines of Los Angeles, failed to appear.

"I'm afraid you'll have to come back again later," booking agent C. F. Beard told the group this morning. "I understand that the only airliner available is having a maintenance check in New York. They hope to get off for London some time tonight."

ONE GROUP LEAVES

The travelers had spent the night at hotels and with British friends and relatives.

A second touring party—98 Irish-Americans from Chicago—finally took off for home on a President Airlines charter plane early today after a seven-day wait at Shannon Airport in Ireland.

The Los Angeles group, including many British wives of soldiers formerly stationed in the United Kingdom, had spent a one-month holiday in this country.

Most of them appeared to have enough money left to pay for meals and lodgings. But airport authorities allowed those short on cash to sleep in the airport lounge.

In Los Angeles, Glenn H. Taylor, owner of President Airlines, said the firm's troubles began when one of its planes crashed at Shannon last Sept. 10. The crash in effect wiped out one-third of the company's three-plane fleet.

Taylor said the airline had about 700 tourist passengers in Europe at the time and the remaining planes "just couldn't operate on regular schedules."

President has purchased 34 other planes and plans to put them in operation soon, he added.

KNIGHT TO GIVE DETAILS

By MORRIS LANDSBERG

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Goodwin J. (Goodie) Knight staked his bid for a political comeback on promised proof today that Richard M. Nixon tried to lure him out of the Republican race for governor.

The 64-year-old former governor called an afternoon news conference and said he would disclose the who, what and where to back up his charge.

Knight, who has clashed with Nixon before, alleged that a Nixon emissary offered him anything in the state if he wouldn't oppose the former vice president's candidacy for governor.

Nixon denied it. He said he is willing to swear on the Bible that he had nothing to do with any attempt to keep Knight from running for the job he held from 1953 through 1958.

Knight announced his candidacy for re-election in 1959, then withdrew after Nixon and other state party leaders threw their preliminary support to then Sen. William F. Knowland, who lost to Democrat Edmund G. (Pat) Brown. In 1956, Knight for a time fought Nixon's renomination for vice president.

He added: "This state can now move forward to renewed production efforts that could far outstrip the activity that took place when they first discovered oil in Titusville."

"This will prove to be an advantageous and welcome spur to our entire economy."

Trooper Killed In Auto Accident

MOUNT POCONO, Pa. (AP)—Trooper Anthony Bensch, 43, of nearby Gilbert, was killed and two other Pennsylvania state policemen slightly hurt Tuesday as their skidding car crashed after a herd of deer appeared in front of it.

The car hit a tree and a utility pole along Route 940 between Blakeslee Corners and Mount Pocono. Bensch was thrown from the back seat. Trooper Robert Latzo, who state police said was driving, and trooper Joseph Murphy were cut and bruised. Bensch, a native of Coaldale, joined the force Oct. 1, 1941.

SAYS L. REIS PAID $25,000 CASH FOR CLUB

POTTSVILLE, Pa. (AP)—One of the former owners of the Celebrity Room has testified that Lillian Reis made the final payment for purchase of the Philadelphia night club with $25,000 cash then "went through a lot of bank mechanics" to make it appear she had to borrow the money.

Martin S. (Mac) Lerner, one of the former owners of the club where Miss Reis danced as a chorus girl, testified Tuesday at the shapely brunette's burglary trial that the $25,000 final cash payment was placed in a safe deposit box on Nov. 18, 1959. He said both he and Miss Reis had access to the box.

Miss Reis is accused of hiring burglars to crack a safe in the home of John B. Rich, a wealthy Pottsville coal operator, on Aug. 7, 1959. Police claim the theft netted nearly a half million dollars in cash and led to the gangland slayings of two brothers. Three men already have been convicted in the theft.

Calvin J. Friedberg, assistant Schuylkill County prosecutor, said in his opening address three weeks ago that the $25,000 "represented a highly significant cash transaction" linked to the proceeds of the burglary.

Lerner testified that final settlement for sale of the Celebrity Room to Miss Reis was completed on Jan. 6, 1960, but on Jan. 25 he was told to bring the money to the Broad Street Trust Co. in Philadelphia where a loan was being made for the purchase of the night club.

Referring to Lerner's statement that Miss Reis had put $25,000 in cash in a joint safe deposit box, Judge Charles W. Staudenmeier asked Lerner:

"And the defendant placed the money in the box?"

"Yes," answered Lerner.

"You are sure of that?" asked the judge.

"Yes," replied Lerner. Spectators stirred and whispered as the judge leaned over to question the witness.

The 32-year-old Miss Reis, who for the 12th consecutive day of the trial wore a new outfit, showed no emotion. She stared solemnly at Lerner who said he had known her since 1953 when she came to the club as a dancer.

Lerner, 33, of Pennsauken, N.J., appeared as a witness for the Commonwealth at the direction of the Camden County (N.J.) Court. The New Jersey court had ordered Lerner to appear at the request of the Schuylkill County Court under the "unwilling witness act."

Lerner said he and his father, Samuel, were the only stockholders in South Pacific Corp., which owned and operated the Celebrity Room since May, 1953.

He testified that early in October of 1959 Miss Reis discussed with him the purchase of the night club and agreed on the price of $40,000. Formal agreement was reached on Oct. 16, 1959, he said.

WEST TEXAS SPARKLER IS CHOICE OF AP

CANYON, Tex. (AP)—Modest little Pete Pedro said Wednesday "if I am back of the week it's because of my teammates."

Pedro, the 5-foot-7, 160-pound Puerto Rican who created a sensation when he scored six touchdowns in sparking West Texas State to a 56-27 victory over Texas Western, was picked for the honor by The Associated Press.

His coach, Joe Kerbel, said the youngster was "overcome with the thrill of the thing." "He told me that he had great blocking and that was the reason he was able to get the honor," Kerbel declared. "He was quite correct but he also did a great deal of it himself. He is the greatest running back I've ever seen in football."

ONLY SOPHOMORE

The youngster is only a sophomore. He came to West Texas State as a transfer from Trinidad, Colo., Junior College. His home is in Lynn, Mass.

West Texas State had won only five games in three years, three of them last season—Kerbel's first as coach. "We already have sellout crowds assured," said Kerbel.

Pedro was chosen over such standout stars as Stan Gann of Georgia Tech, Sonny Gibbs of Texas Christian, Rod Sears, of Stanford, Willie Brown of Southern California, Doug Elmore of Mississippi, Bill Swingle of Northwestern, Angelo Dabiero of Notre Dame, Dave Sarette of Syracuse and others who stood out with their play last weekend.

HARRISBURG (AP)—The state banking department issued a call Tuesday for the condition of all state banks and trust companies, savings banks and private banks as of Sept. 27. The report need not be published.

The Lincoln Memorial was dedicated in May, 1922, culminating a project originated two years after Abraham Lincoln's death.

D. B. King Dies; Lumber Expert, Health Official: Daniel B. King, 33, lumber expert and inspector at the Gettysburg furniture factories and a member of the Gettysburg board of health, died Saturday afternoon at about 4:30 o'clock at his home, 136 Hanover street. Death was due to shock caused by a descending gall stone. For years Mr. King had suffered from a weak heart condition.
Mr. King had performed his regular duties at the furniture factories last Friday morning and in the afternoon he had gone to Hagerstown, Maryland, to assist in the purchase of new machinery. He had retired apparently in his usual health Friday evening about 8:30 o'clock. He was stricken about 7 o'clock Saturday morning and remained in a critical condition until his death.
Pfeffer, it is understood, will accept the office and will assume Bender's position as chairman of the sewer committee and member of the light and finance committees for the 15 months remaining in Bender's unexpired term.

Analyses Of Water Received, Studied: Town council received a long awaited report Monday evening from the Wayne laboratories at Waynesboro on the results of chemical and bacteriological analyses of water taken from Gettysburg water company mains.

The results of the bacteriological examinations were listed as satisfactory with the exception of one sample taken on East Broadway, where "a positive presumptive test for b.coli was obtained." Council was told that b.coli are bacteria that are not harmful in themselves but indicate pollution bordering on typhoid infection in the water supply.

New Vault Door Bought for $265: Adams county commissioners at their weekly session this morning purchased a new door from the York Safe and Lock Company, of York, for the new vault that is to be constructed for the use of the clerk of the courts at the present location of the probate office. The door will cost $265.

The new equipment meets requirements of the national board of fire underwriters and has a four-hour resistance to fire and heat. The door will be built on an eight-inch frame, will be insulated. It had originally been planned to use the door on the present clerk's vault but it was found that it would be unsuited for use on the new vault. O. H. Hostetter, Hanover, will begin work on the vault Wednesday morning.

One Cent To Be Added To Milk Cost Per Quart: Gettysburgians will pay 11 cents a quart for milk now retailing at 10 cents after next Monday if an order issued by the state milk control board at Harrisburg Monday is carried into effect.

Official notice of the new order was expected this afternoon or Wednesday by local retailers, who say that under the order the increase in price must be passed along to the farmer, who will receive from 40 to 45 cents more per hundred for his raw milk.

Today's Talk
SOLITUDE

There isn't a human being who doesn't need solitude. Yet there are many who can't appreciate it when they have it.
In the truest sense, however, there can be no real solitude, for to make solitude beautiful and full of warmth, there must be something about to stimulate as well as to heal the tired and restless heart of him or her who would seek it.
Solitude in a hotel room, far from loved ones, is not to be commended, nor is it to be sought.
But solitude "Out Where The West Begins" or amongst the hills and valleys of some sylvan stretch is to feed the soul on honey.
Solitude under a tree by the banks of some running stream, with the scent of wild flowers and the song of wild birds about, and a book in hand emphasizing the marks of some fine grained mind—that is solitude—both to be sought and enjoyed.

In solitude we meet ourselves. We are stripped of all glamour and conceit and made to feel our frailty as well as our strength. For there are times when a man gets to himself only to find that he is not the weakling he and others supposed him to be. To spend such time in solitude is to enrich all mankind.
It is not surprising that others do not understand us when we misunderstand ourselves so much and so often. Solitude helps us to appraise our own gifts, our own inheritance.
Solitude helps to sweep out the mind too. The little petty annoyances scamp off for richer booty and the solitary soul is left to feed upon its own treasured gains.
In solitude we gain self-confidence, see our own follies in their tinsied coverings, and are resolved to be better and do better.

AMBASSADORS MAY CONTINUE U. S. RED TALKS

By LEWIS GULICK
WASHINGTON (AP)—Diplomatic sources said today U. S. Soviet talks on Berlin may continue at the ambassadorial level after President Kennedy sees Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko.
Formal announcement was expected shortly that Kennedy will see Gromyko Friday, with Secretary of State Dean Rusk sitting in on the White House session.
Rusk talked with Gromyko in New York three times in the past two weeks. This was a probing operation to find out if there are prospects for fruitful East-West negotiations to settle the explosive Berlin dispute.
Kennedy will give Gromyko a final expression of the U. S. view before the Soviet foreign minister leaves for Moscow.

NEED MORE FACTS
Further U. S.-Soviet talks seem likely. So far, Gromyko has given Rusk only a limited clarification of the Kremlin's intentions on Germany.
Rusk would still like to know more precisely what Soviet Premier Khrushchev means, for instance, when he talks about guarantees for Western rights to West Berlin after he signs a peace treaty with Communist East Germany.
Diplomats said firm arrangements obviously would have to await the outcome of the White House meeting. But barring a more rapid advance than has taken place so far, more exploratory talks will be needed before with Robert Davis as circulation manager.

TRIO OF NEW PROGRAMS ON TV TUESDAY

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP TV-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP)—A troika of new programs made their first appearances on network television Tuesday night. One was promising, one, reminiscent, and the third, an oft-told tale.
The promising one was CBS' "The Dick Van Dyke Show." It is a situation comedy of the classic television mold: the young couple consisting of the mother-knows-best wife and the husband who is just an overgrown little boy.
But it was dreamed up by Carl Reiner, a good comedian turned writer, and the boyish husband is played by a talented rubber-faced, rubber-boned comedian named Dick Van Dyke, so it looks as if there's a new TV family around for the audience to clasp warmly to its collective bosom.
INTENDED FOR ADULTS
If you close your eyes during ABC's animated cartoon "Calvin and the Colonel," visions of his old Amos 'n Andy show will dance in your head—and with good reason. Freeman Gosden and Charles Correll, who were Amos 'n Andy, play the Colonel, a fox who tries hard to be wily, and Calvin, a bumbling, strong-backed bear.
Although this is alleged to be one of the cartoon shows for adults, it would fit better into the late afternoon children's hour of TV. Incidentally, the animation is crude compared with the slick jobs being turned out by Walt Disney and the Hanna-Barbera studios.
ABC's "The New Breed" is another hour-long police action story. Its gimmick is the glorification of career cops with college degrees. In this case the policemen—all attractive young men—are members of the Los Angeles police metropolitan squad which tackles special and difficult problems.

COMO RETURNS
Tuesday night's special problem was a mentally deranged war veteran who had lost his daughter through illness. He develops an insane dislike for a doctor he believes responsible for her death, and in revenge, kidnaps the physician's little daughter. He plans to kill her along with himself by exploding a grenade in a children's hospital.
There is the usual hunt, the closing in and, of course, the last-minute rescue. I've seen this with slight variations a number of times lately but usually in the 30-minute version. The only way the "New Breed" cops seemed different from the old breed was that they agreed not to give the kidnap story to the newspapers.

Recommended tonight: "The Alvin Show," premiere, CBS, 7:30-8 (EDT)—still another animated cartoon comedy series featuring animals: "Perry Como Show," NBC, 9-10—variety show returns for another season; "Mrs. G. Goes to College," premiere, CBS, 9:30-10—start of a comedy series starring Gertrude Berg and Sir Cedric Hardwicke; "Theater '62," premiere, NBC, 10-11—"The Spiral Staircase," a new adaptation of an old suspense story with Lillian Gish, Gig Young, Elizabeth Montgomery and Eddie Albert.

3 Witnesses Talk In Embezzlement Trial
BUTLER, Pa. (AP)—Three prosecution witnesses testified Tuesday in the embezzlement trial of Mrs. Mae Wheeler concerning the alleged disappearance of $192,000.
Ann E. Yakubik, an employee of the Workingmen's Building & Loan Association, said she once gave Mrs. Wheeler $192 left over after Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Turk paid off a mortgage.
The Turks later testified they received no refund.
Mrs. Wheeler, a 53-year-old grandmother who was an official of the association for 25 years, is being tried in Butler County Court on charges of embezzling $460,000 from the association.
Eleven other prosecution witnesses, all investors in the loan association, testified about payments registered in their account books.
The prosecution contends some of the payments were not recorded in association ledgers. Mrs. Wheeler took over the ledgers in 1960.

GETS NATO REPORT
Kennedy received a report from Gen. Lauris Norstad, the North Atlantic Treaty Organization Commander, NATO is building its armed strength in the face of the Berlin threat and a generally tougher Communist stance worldwide.

Joining the White House conference, which lasted about two hours, were Rusk, Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara and Gen. Lyman L. Lemnitzer, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff.
Norstad's visit was described as one of his frequent trips to Washington for consultation.

SAYS SYRIAN ARMY WANTED ONLY REDRESS

DAMASCUS, Syria (AP)—President Gamal Abdel Nasser's agents moved "like an octopus" to weaken the Syrian army, suffocate freedom of citizens and to fill prisons," says the new Syrian army commander.
Gen. Abdel Karim Zahredin told reporters Tuesday that was the reason the Syrian army rose against Nasser's United Arab Republic last week and forcibly severed Syria's 24-year-old ties with Egypt.
Zahredin also accused Cairo agents of stealing millions of dollars worth of Syrian arms and equipment for shipment to Egypt.
He said Nasser's intelligence officers filled Syria's prisons with political prisoners and stifled individual liberties.

REDDRESS WRONGS
"The army's only aim was to redress wrongs and it was pledged not to interfere with the political life of Syria," he said.
Informed sources said that one way Nasser weakened the Syrian army was to send several dozen Syrian officers to Communist countries as students. They said Syria now has demanded their prompt return.
Interior Minister Adnan Kuwaili told newsmen the new Syrian regime had found a large number of political prisoners but had been unable to come up with an accurate count. Premier Mamoun Kuzbari estimated the number at about 30,000.

Kuwaili said the dreaded internal security system at one time had about 6,500 secret agents with a monthly payroll of about one million Syrian pounds—$2,800,000.
Syria will continue its ban on the Communist party. Kuwaili said, adding that "we will leave the question of political parties to Parliament."

GOP DIVIDED ABOUT NIXON

By JACK BELL
WASHINGTON (AP)—Two Republican senators disagreed today on whether Richard M. Nixon's decision to seek the California governorship eliminates him as a possibility for the GOP presidential nomination in 1964.
Sen. Clifford P. Case, R-N.J., who identifies himself with the liberal element of the GOP, said he is accepting at face value Nixon's statement that he is not a candidate and won't be the next Republican nominee.
"I'm glad he's running for governor and I accepted what he said about 1964," Case said.
But Sen. Karl E. Mundt, R-S.D., who lines up with conservatives, said in a separate interview he is certain that if Nixon is elected governor of California there will be a movement to draft him for the 1964 presidential nomination.
"I don't think you can count him out of the running at all," Mundt said. "If he is elected governor, he will be a powerful force in the next convention. No California governor is going to be ignored by his party."

Republican leaders who have studied the transcript of Nixon's Sept. 27 announcement at a news conference have noted that he didn't entirely rule out the possibility of a 1964 draft. He limited himself to saying he would not be a candidate for the nomination and didn't expect to get it.

Professor, Wife Killed In Crash

PITTSBURGH (AP)—An auto and truck crashed on the rain-slicked Penn. Lincoln Parkway Tuesday, killing a University of Pittsburgh professor and his wife and injuring their two children and the truck driver.
Dennis J. Ford, 33, a professor of electrical engineering, and his wife, Fae, 28, were dead on arrival at different hospitals.
The children, Deborah, 3, and David, 14 months, were treated for abrasions and contusions. Truck driver Joseph Stanello, 50, of Pittsburgh, suffered cuts and possible chest injuries.
Stanello told police his truck veered toward the median strip of the wet highway after a car swerved in front of his truck. Officers said the truck skidded into the oncoming Ford auto.
The crash occurred on the east leg of the Parkway near the Squirrel Hill Tunnel. The Fords were injured in a car crash near the same spot in April.
The family lived in nearby Churchill Borough.

NEW YORK (AP)—The University of Delaware today led in the first weekly poll for the Lambert Cup—emblematic of Eastern small college football supremacy.
Delaware, with a 2-0 record, had a 9.9 average out of a possible 10.
Lehigh was in second place followed, in order, by Bucknell, Tufts, Kings Point, Amherst, Northeastern, Colby, Penn Military, Hofstra, Lafayette and St. Lawrence. The last three were tied for 10th.

ANOTHER CROP FAILURE FOR SOVIET LANDS

By STANLEY JOHNSON
MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet Union has disclosed a virtual crop failure in Kazakhstan and the virgin lands. This may have a considerable effect upon both domestic and international policies.
Pravda reports that delegates to a Communist party meeting in the central Asian republic "spoke with great uneasiness about the fact that this year Kazakhstan cannot give the state much grain."
The first secretary of the Communist party in Kazakhstan, D. A. Kunayev, said: "We must report to the Congress (the 22nd Congress of the Communist party, meeting here Oct. 17) that we do not cope with our task in the production of grain. We cope with our tasks completely unsatisfactorily."

WIDE INFLUENCE
Last year Kazakhstan and the virgin lands also had a disastrous harvest. The first secretary, Nikolai Belyaev, was fired from his local job and from his top job on the Moscow Presidium.
The development of the virgin lands is a pet project of Premier Khrushchev, who sees those vast reaches of central Asia as a means of overtaking the United States in food production.
By all accounts, the harvest in western reaches of the Soviet Union is not much better.

The crop setback may have its influence on foreign policy. On the international front, the Soviet Union almost always lowers its demands when there is a bad harvest since, unlike the United States, it has no reserves on which to fall back.
Pravda blamed both bad weather and faulty techniques for the harvest failure.
Canada produces five times as much wheat as all the Communist countries combined.
The education of only some."

Kennedy announced that he will try again next year to push through his broader education program.

INSPECTIONS COMPLETED OF TRACK GROUPS

HARRISBURG (AP)—The executive director of Pennsylvania's Harness Racing Commission said today state police investigations of groups seeking pari-mutuel track licenses have been completed.
"All of the results are in," said M. Joseph Lynch. "They should be available for study by the commissioners in plenty of time before the next meeting."
The commission is scheduled to meet on Oct. 16.
In the past the three-man agency has put off action on issuing more licenses pending receipt of the state police reports.
The investigations are routine checks of persons connected with organizations seeking licenses. There are 16 such organizations.
ONLY ONE LICENSE
Only one license has been issued so far. That was approved April 5 for the Liberty Bell Racing Association headed by Philadelphia James P. Clark, chairman of that city's Democratic Finance Committee.

With the state police reports in, it was reported authoritatively that at least one more license would be issued at the next meeting.
The frontrunner appeared to be the Bucks County Racing Association headed by Daniel C. Parish of Pittsburgh, a close friend of Gov. Lawrence.

The Parish group has proposed leasing for a separate 50-day meeting the site used by the Liberty Bell group in northeast Philadelphia.
Commission officials said they understood construction of the 30,000-seat, $12 million Liberty Bell Plant would begin soon. They said racing by next August was a possibility at the Clark plant.

The track will be located on a 640-acre site on the border of Philadelphia and Bucks counties.
There also was a possibility—but nothing definite—that the commission might agree on issuing a license to one of four groups seeking to operate in Washington County. Voters in that county approved pari-mutuel tracks in their area at last spring's primary.
Groups seeking licenses to operate in the county are: Washington Trotting Association, Inc.; West Penn Raceways, Inc.; George Washington Racing Association, and the Charters Racing Association.
Commission officials recently inspected several of the proposed track sites in the county.
Washington Trotting, headed by Del Miller, a horse breeder, was reported in speculation to be the frontrunning contender.
The 1959 law permits the commission to issue as many as four licenses.

ROBIN ROBERTS, BUCS' MIZELL PUT ON OPTION BASEBALL LIST

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Veteran Robin Roberts, who won more games than any other pitcher in the history of the Philadelphia Phillies, and Vinegar Bend Mizell, who helped the Pittsburgh Pirates to a pennant in 1960, have been made available to the two new National League clubs.

It was learned Monday that Roberts and Mizell are among 120 players—15 from each NL club—placed on a list from which Houston and New York will select players to stock their franchises which begin operation next year.

Roberts, a right-hander, won 234 games in 14 years with the Phillies while losing 199. But for the past three years he has slumped with losing seasons. He was 10-17 this year, 12-16 in 1960 and 15-17 in 1959.

NO COMMENT

When told of the report, Roberts said in Philadelphia he would prefer not to comment until the list is made public officially, the day after the World Series ends. He acknowledged he was aware previously of reports he would be offered for draft.

Southpaw Mizell came to the Pirates after the 1960 season had started in a trade with the St. Louis Cardinals and he racked up 13 victories against only five losses that year. His pitching was one of the key factors in the Pirates' pennant drive. But he slumped this year and did not show the form of 1960, winning only 7 games while losing 10.

Also made available to the new clubs were first basemen Rocky Nelson of the Pirates and Pancho Herrera of the Phillies.

Nelson also was one of the key men in the Pirates' pennant drive when he batted .300 and drove in 35 runs in 1960 while alternating with Dick Stuart. Herrera never lived up to expectations by the Phillies.

LABINE ON LIST

Still another member of the Pirates' pennant-winning team who was placed on the list of the availables was relief pitcher Clem Labine, who won three key games after joining the Bucs late in 1960.

The other Pirates made eligible were pitchers Bobby Shantz, Curt Raydon, Jim Umbricht and Al Jackson; infielders Johnny Logan and Norm Houley; outfielders Joe Christopher, Walt Moryn, Roman Mejias, Henry Mitchell and John Powers and catcher Elmo Plaskett.

The other Phillies players included pitchers Ken Lehman, Ruben Gomez, Ray Culp, Bruce Guber and Jess Hickman; infielders Richie Allen, George Williams and Bob Sadowski; outfielders B. G. Smith, Ken Walters and Elmer Valo; and catchers Clarence Coleman and Al Kenders.

Each new club must take a total of 16 players, two from each list of the eight established teams, at a price of $75,000 each. Another player may be taken from each list at $50,000.

'60 CHAMP IS LOSER IN GOLF

TULSA (AP) — Herman M. Fredberg, New York, made a great recovery shot on the 18th hole Tuesday to defeat Michael Cestone, Montclair, N.J., defending champion in the United States Golf Association senior championship.

Fredberg took a 1-up decision over the champion after hitting his second shot into a sand trap on the par 4 final hole. "But he blasted out of the trap to within four inches of the cup. Cestone missed an 18-foot putt in his bid for par.

MEDALIST WINS

Win Titles AT Edgewood Lanes

Pete Bealing and Dolores McKim, Hanover, won the men's and women's division titles, respectively, in the Adams County Bowling Proprietors Association of America all-star tournament which concluded Sunday at the Edgewood Lanes.

Bealing total 4,702 pins for 24 games, an average of 195.22. Miss McKim total 4,142 pins for an average of 172.16.

Twenty bowlers from the area took part in the tournament. In addition to the winners others who will compete in the District Five finals to be held in four southern Pennsylvania cities are: Men's division, Claude Lease, 4,684; Gene Ouren, 4,550; and Louis Yuhast, 4,505; women, Mildred Muller, 3,849.

District Five winners will compete in the state finals with the state champions entering the national finals to be held in Miami, Fla., next January.

YOGI SAYS HE JUST LIKES PLAYING BALL

By YOGI BERRA

Written For The Associated Press NEW YORK (AP) — For the last few years fellow askers me what World Series record gives me the biggest thrill. I really couldn't answer that one. I get a thrill every time I put on a Yankee uniform.

I'm 37 now and I guess Lou Gehrig said it best when he said "I'm lucky to be a Yankee."

The World Series scheduled to start today against Cincinnati is my 12th. It used to be that I looked forward to the winner's share. But as you get older your sense of values change and you realize money isn't everything.

I see where I've earned $71,841 extra for playing in 68 World Series games. You know, I never added it up.

NO OTHER PLANS

To me it's more important to be playing. I have no idea what I'd like to do when I'm finished playing. I don't even think about that. And I have no plans about retiring. I just want to play from year to year.

This series means a lot to me because this will be the first time I've started in one as an outfielder. Oh, I played some outfield last year and in 1947 when I was a rookie of 22 and the Dodgers ran wild on the bases in my first two series games as a catcher.

In the third game I pinch hit for Sherman Lollar and became the first player to hit a pinch home run in a World Series.

But I don't like to look back and maybe when I get older those dozen records I hold will mean much more. It's still nice to have fellow come up to you and remind you of them.

IOWA LINEMAN TOP AP CHOICE

By TED MEIER Associated Press Sports Writer

Iowa, the nation's top-ranked team in The Associated Press college football poll, opened its season last Saturday with a 28-7 victory over California.

For his part in helping to beat the Bears, Sherwyn Thorson, Iowa guard, was named today as the lineman of the week by The Associated Press.

A 215-pound senior, Thorson played virtually the entire game and led the Hawkeyes' forward wall in holding Cal to a net 85 yards rushing.

"Thorson defended well and threw the key blocks in a couple of touchdowns runs by Wilburn Hollis," said Gus Schrader, sports editor of the Cedar Rapids, Iowa, Gazette.

Gary Collins, Maryland end, was high up in the linemen voting by sports writers and broadcasters.

Collins caught four passes for 57 yards, punted four times for a 40.2 average and made numerous tackles as Maryland beat Clemson. He now holds the Maryland pass yardage record with 811 yards.

to do it.

Dawson won six straight holes after making the turn to defeat Edward Schwartz, Leawood, Kan., 3 and 2.

Richard H. Guelich Jr., Buffalo N.Y., had to go 21 holes to oust Bob Tobin of Brooklyn and Dexter H. Daniels of Winter Haven, Fla., went 20 to top J. Ripley Greer of Memphis, Tenn.

EXPECTS IOWA TO TAKE OVER SOUTHERN CAL

By HAROLD CLAASSEN Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—There will be a full schedule of college football games this weekend despite the World Series. If you get too excited about the baseball, don't worry. Here are your football winners!!!

(Last week, 32 right, 15 wrong for .681. Season's average, .748)

Iowa over Southern California: This will occupy your TV screen after the Series game. Larry Ferguson, Hawkeye speedster, is injured but the Iowans still have too much for the once mighty Trojans.

Mississippi over Florida State: The Mississippians, like the river, just keep rolling along.

OTHER CHOICES

Georgia Tech over Louisiana State: a night contest. But the darkness won't hide Stan Gann's cleverness at quarterback for the Engineers.

Texas over Washington State: With ease.

Michigan State over Stanford: Stanford will furnish most of the excitement, but Michigan State provides the heavyweight tackles who will control the scoring.

Syracuse over Maryland: The Orangemen from New York could be in trouble if Ernie Davis hasn't completely recovered from his hurts.

ARMY UNDERDOG

Ohio State over UCLA: The Buckeyes' stingy defense will decide this struggle between the leaders of two powerful conferences.

Michigan over Army: The Cadets have given up their lonely end offense. They'll also give up the decision in this one.

Elsewhere: Purdue over Notre Dame; Kansas over Colorado; Missouri over Arkansas; Texas Christian over Arkansas.

Penn State over Boston University; Colgate over Bucknell; Villanova over Massachusetts; Dartmouth over Pennsylvania; Virginia Tech over West Virginia; Washington over Pittsburgh.

PITT TO PLAN ON CONFUSION

PITTSBURGH (AP)—If the Pitt Panthers expect to beat the Washington Huskies at Seattle Saturday, they'll have to overcome the planned confusion of their foe.

At least that was the opinion expressed by Pitt scout Bob Timmons at a football writers' luncheon Tuesday. Timmons scouted Washington in both of its games—a 13-6 loss to Purdue and a 20-7 win over Illinois.

"They try to confuse you with a balanced or unbalanced line and they use different formations for both," Timmons said.

Timmons said they add to the confusion with a "muddle huddle." He described this as a huddle in which the team comes out crisscrossed instead of using the normal straight ahead approach.

LIKE OKLAHOMA

"Recognition has to be quick," Timmons said. They're like Oklahoma—up, down and go. It's up to the defensive line to recognize whether it's a balanced or unbalanced line and call it out."

Timmons said the Huskies are mainly a running club. "They like to trap a lot up the middle, run wide and only pass when they have to," he said.

Timmons said Washington also employs a somewhat unorthodox defense, doing "a lot of stunting." Stunting is a defensive tactic in which the linemen move out of their normal positions and crash into the enemy at an unsuspected place.

Nellie Fox Has Picked Yankees

CHAMBERSBURG, Pa. (AP)—Nellie Fox, veteran second baseman of the Chicago White Sox, picked the New York Yankees today to win the 1961 World Series "because of their power."

"I played in an All-Star game at Cincinnati's Crosley Field and that park is built for Yankee power," Fox said at his nearby St. Thomas home.

"I can't say too much about Cincinnati," he went on. "Because I don't get to see them play, but they must have a solid club or else they wouldn't be in the series."

But, with or without Mickey Mantle in the lineup, the Chicago second-sacker figures Yankee power will prove just too much for the Redlegs.

legies in New Jersey, Ohio, West Virginia and Pennsylvania will be invited to attend.

The clinic is one of eight to be held in the United States next year under the sponsorship of the American Football Coaches Association.

Memorial Race At Grove Sunday

WILLIAMS GROVE—National champion A. J. Foyt has been signed by Bob Richwine, owner of the famous Williams Grove Speedway, to head up a "dream field" of the nation's greatest chauffeurs coming to the half-mile oval this Sunday afternoon for the running of the Annual Ted Horn-Bill Schindler Memorial Trophy sprint car racing classic.

The 26-year-old Houston (Tex.) driver already established as one of the all-time speed greats as the winner of this year's Indianapolis Classic and holder of the national title two consecutive years will lead the strongest field in the speed classic since its inauguration with opening of the track in 1939.

Rounding out the "dream field" will be at least 25 veterans in action.

HEARINGS FOR TRACK LICENSE ARE SCHEDULED

By HERB LINNEN

HARRISBURG (AP) — Dauphin County Court today scheduled arguments in a suit challenging the Pennsylvania Harness Racing Commission's award of a pari-mutuel track license to a Philadelphia group.

The license involved is the only one issued by the three-man commission so far. It was awarded last April 5 to the Liberty Bell Racing Association headed by James P. Clark, Philadelphia trucker and city Democratic finance chairman.

The action was challenged immediately by the Keystone Raceway Corp., before the State Supreme Court, and by Keystone Trotting, Inc., before the Dauphin Court.

The Supreme Court last July 18 dismissed the Keystone Raceway suit which was filed by former Atty. Gen. Thomas D. McBride of Philadelphia, a one-time member of the high court.

DISMISSED OBJECTIONS

In a brief filed with the six-member Dauphin Court, commission counsel Harry L. Rossi of Philadelphia argued that the Supreme Court's decision dismissed the same objections as those raised by Keystone Trotting.

The latter organization is headed by Max Hempt, a Mechanicsburg contractor, horse breeder and member of the U.S. Trotting Association. Keystone Trotting proposes establishing a 25,000-seat $7.75 million pari-mutuel track in Bensalem Twp., Bucks County.

Keystone Raceway wants to set up a track in Delaware County.

Both organizations contended that the commission violated a provision of the 1929 administrative code by awarding the license without holding hearings at which applicants might cross-examine another.

In his brief, Rossi argued that the 1959 Harness Racing Law made provision for hearings and possible court appeals only in instances where the commission refused to grant or revoked a license.

WASN'T A REFUSAL

He said the action involving Clark's organization didn't amount to a refusal to grant a license to the other 16 groups seeking licenses.

Turning to the Supreme Court ruling, Rossi argued:

"The Supreme Court, in quashing (the Keystone Raceway) appeal, held that a competing applicant for a harness race track license did not have a direct, immediate and substantial interest in the granting of a license to Liberty Bell Racing Association."

However, Edward C. First Jr., counsel for Hempt, contended that Keystone Trotting, much more so than Keystone Raceway, was directly affected by the commission action.

SITE CLOSER

He argued that his client's proposed track would be much closer to the Clark group's site than the plant location envisioned by Keystone Raceway. He added:

"Therefore, we argue that the question of granting a license to one or the other is what the law calls mutually exclusive — that when these two licenses are for tracks so close together, then the grant of one in effect is mutually exclusive of the other."

Rossi's brief argued that the high court "had before it issues identical to those raised" by Keystone Trotting.

First contended they were not the same. Nor did the high court's decision, he added, go into the question of commission responsibility to hold public hearings on applications.

YOUNG O'TOOLE TO HURL FIRST GAME FOR REDS

NEW YORK (AP)—Jim O'Toole, 24-year-old son of a Chicago policeman, had the most important assignment of his career today, and he admitted he had "butterflies."

Currently the hottest pitcher on either team, O'Toole was Manager Fred Hutchinson's choice as opening-day pitcher for the Cincinnati Reds against the New York Yankees.

"I'll feel the butterflies, all right," conceded O'Toole, a 190-pound, 6-footer. "But I always feel them in any game until I get a batter or two out. Then they go away."

O'Toole is the youngest of Hutchinson's big three, and the least experienced.

But he had a winning streak of eight games at the end of the season and did not allow a single home run in 101 innings of his last 16 games. That's what Hutchinson needs against the Yankee long-bat hitters.

"He was our best pitcher during the last three weeks of the season when we needed good pitching," said Hutchinson, "so he's the obvious choice. This way I plan on starting him three times."

put the toe back in the game when the goalposts were widened by almost 5 feet in 1959, have kicked 52 three-pointers in 30 far this year. If the rate is maintained it will easily surpass last season's alltime high of 224.

Meanwhile, Northwestern has taken the initial lead in total offense with 488 yards gained in its first game while Dartmouth is the over-all defense leader with only 58 yards permitted, according to NCAA Service Bureau statistics released today.

Northwestern also is No. 1 in rushing offense with 478 yards and Dartmouth tops in rushing defense with only six yards given up. West Texas State, with 111 points in two games, and Columbus, with 50 in its opener, are running 1-2 in team scoring.

MSM, Oilers Meet At New Oxford

The Phillips "66" Oilers, a nationally-known AAU basketball team, will meet the Mt. St. Mary's College team of Emmitsburg in an exhibition game December 15 at the New Oxford High School gym, which seats 1,600.

Mt. St. Mary's, coached by Jim Phelan, played in the NCAA Small College tourney last season and advanced to the semifinals before being eliminated. The December 15 game will be the eighth on the Mountaineers' schedule.

If there is sufficient interest among area high school coaching staffs, the Oilers may conduct a clinic at the New Oxford school the afternoon prior to the game.

Game details and the starting time will be announced in the near future. It was announced adult tickets for the game will sell for $1.50 and students will pay 75 cents.

MSM BOOTERS TAKE OPENER

Mt. St. Mary's opened its soccer season auspiciously Tuesday afternoon by nipping Western Maryland at Westminster 3-2 in two extra periods.

A goal by Ted Swormley in the first of the two required extra periods gave the Mountaineers the decision in the hard fought contest. Brown and Danek accounted for the other Mount goals, both coming in the fourth period to tie the score at 2-2.

Frostburg will play at Emmitsburg next Monday in another Mason-Dixon Conference game.

Ordinary oils can create their own metallic ash. Above you see what happens when a conventional multi-grade oil is dropped on this electrically heated piston device. These dark spots contain additive ash. When this ash builds up in your engine, it's bad news.

No ash with Shell X-100 Premium Motor Oil. When the same test is tried with new Shell X-100 Premium all the oil vaporizes. The piston device is clean. There is no ash. You can expect a cleaner engine, less chance for knock and rough running.

Hot piston test shows that new Shell motor oil eliminates a trouble other oils can create. Read how this revolutionary oil can prolong engine life 5 ways.

Here is an astonishing fact you should know before you get your next oil change: Premium motor oils—with one exception—will produce a deposit called additive ash. This ash can contribute to rough running and knock.

Shell X-100 Premium is the one premium motor oil that cannot produce an additive ash deposit in your engine. Read how this remarkable oil formula helps your engine last longer.

TODAY, every Shell dealer has new Shell X-100 Premium Motor Oil ready for your next change-over.

New X-100 Premium is unlike any other motor oil. It eliminates a deposit that all other premium motor oils help create themselves. This deposit is additive ash. It is caused by the metallic additives used to prevent scuffing, sludge deposits, oxidation, and so forth.

With each stroke of the piston, these additives can deposit metallic salts in the combustion chamber. Here they burn and form additive ash.

This crusty ash can build up in your combustion chamber, can cause your engine to knock and run roughly.

New X-100 Premium doesn't contain a single metallic additive. No metallic additives—no additive ash.

Additive ash is just one internal trouble that can cause engine problems. You should know about four others, too.

Helps prevent sludge
from anti-freeze leaks

Remember this when you fill up with anti-freeze this fall: Anti-freeze can leak out of your cooling system into your crankcase.

Many oils can react chemically with permanent anti-freeze to form a horrible sludge—so sticky that it can bring an otherwise healthy engine to a standstill. Then you may be in for a repair bill.

New Shell X-100 Premium resists reaction with any sort of anti-freeze. It shrugs it off.

Disarms crankcase dirt

All engines accumulate crankcase dirt. The problem is to stop the many different kinds of dirt particles from ganging up and forming sticky sludge, which can clog your engine.

Most premium oils use a detergent additive to do the job. But the majority of these additives are metallic and cause that old devil—ash.

Shell's solution is to replace the detergent with a dispersant—a remarkable new ingredient called Alkaldine.*

Alkaldine works to disperse dirt particles—in effect, holds them apart—so that they don't form sticky sludge.

Alkaldine additive is potent stuff. After 1,200,000 miles of city driving, *Trademark Shell Oil Company engines lubricated with Shell X-100 Premium were torn down and inspected. The amount of sludge was astonishingly low. In some cases there was so little it could hardly be measured.

This is Shell X-100 Premium Motor Oil—in the white can with the red letters.

Ignores temperature changes

Many motor oils tend to become too thick when cold and too thin when hot. This is hard on your engine.

New Shell X-100 Premium is an all-year oil. Here's how it works. Alkaldine has a molecular structure that resembles a basket of eels.

When the oil is cold, Alkaldine's eel-like molecules curl up as if for comfort. In effect, they take up less space in the oil—and the oil flows freely through the tightest bearing.

When the oil is hot, the molecules uncurl, take up more room—and the oil resists thinning. New X-100 Premium lubricates just as effectively in June as it does in January.

Fights engine acid a new way

Automobile engines manufacture acid. It can cause more wear than friction. Most motor oils combat this engine acid with alkaline additives. But the neutralizing effect of the oil gets weaker as engine acid eats up the alkalinity—until eventually such an additive stops working altogether.

Shell X-100 Premium doesn't depend on alkalinity. It actually plates all engine surfaces with a thin chemical film. The metal "adsorbs" some of the oil's protective qualities. Chemists call this phenomenon "chemisorption."

The process of "chemisorption" offers unique long-lasting protection against acid attack.

How much does it cost?

If you now use a premium motor oil, you'll get Shell X-100 Premium for about the same price.

If you're now making do with ordinary motor oil, you'll pay about $3.60 a year—more—less than a penny a day extra—assuming you drive at about the national average of 10,000 miles a year and get regular oil changes.

Quite a bargain for the one motor oil that fights additive ash and four other troubles to help prolong the life of your engine.

Hanover Firm Finds Huge Demand For Canned Water

Pennsylvania's newest contribution to the nation's Civil Defense effort is canned water now being processed by the Hanover Canning Co., in York County.

According to George Lawrence, sales manager for the company, the processing of canned water for use in fallout shelters has been going on for the past two weeks on a limited basis. However, production will be increased to a maximum of 6,000 100-ounce cans per day within the next couple of weeks.

Lawrence said the demand for the new product has been tremendous. He added that the pure filtered drinking water in cans will be sold in the usual retail stores.

$2.49 PER CASE

The water will retail for $2.49 for a case of six 100-ounce cans. With careful use a case of the water should last one person for the duration of a limited stay in a fallout shelter.

A can of the water was presented to Gov. David L. Lawrence last week, according to Leslie V. Savino, chief of production at the canning company. Savino said the governor was elated with the new product.

The water is processed in the same manner as other canned products. The water is boiled in steam flow vacuum and sealed under vacuum. In most cases the water is in a purer state than water drawn from a home spigot, Savino said.

The cans are double lacquered, and tests reveal that it would be usable for from 20 to 30 years, or the life of the can.

Savino said recent emphasis on ONLY ONE IN STATE Civil Defense fallout shelters prompted the company to begin production of canned water. The company has been planning to begin canning for such use months ago, but the recent turn of events hurried the program to the production stage. Lawrence said that so far as is known Hanover Canning Co. is the only company in the state canning water for retail sales to the public. There are a few other producers of canned water in other states, but most of them produce only 12-ounce cans at a higher price, and mostly for the armed forces.

Inquiries concerning the new product have come in to the canning company from interested business, organizations and individuals from as far away as Maine and Florida, and many points in between, Savino said.

FARM CALENDAR

Don't Burn Leaves — Collect falling leaves of shade trees and shrubs and pile them on a compost heap instead of burning them, advises Alfred J. Gianfagna, extension floriculturist. When decayed, this material forms an excellent leaf mold which can be used to repot house plants, or to top dress around choice perennials.

Send Soil Samples — September and October are two of the big soil testing months and James H. Eakin, Jr., extension agronomist at Penn State, suggests that soil samples be taken from sod fields to be platted to row crops next spring. Having soil tests made early aids both the farmer and the soil testing laboratory personnel. All samples must be submitted in special containers provided by the county agent.

Feed Fresh Cows — Dairy cows have a high requirement for nutrients immediately after freshening, reminds Richard S. Adams, extension dairy specialist at Penn State. That's why he says it's important to place them on full-grain feeding as soon as possible after freshening.

Don't Save Seeds — Saving vegetable seed from the home garden is not usually recommended unless the grower is familiar with conditions and with his planting. J. O. Dutt, extension vegetable gardening specialist, warns that insects carry pollen from one plant to another and the possibility of cross-pollination is always present. However, if certain plants are outstanding, have no disease, and produce a large yield of uniform fruit, it might be well to allow fruits to ripen and save the seed of all the fruits. But, remember, the individual plant must be considered.

NAHA, Okinawa (AP) — Typhoon Tilda roared across this island U.S. military base Tuesday, killing six persons and damaging houses, power and telephone lines.

Two of the dead were crew members of a Greek ship dashed against the shore of Minami Dai-to Island, about 200 miles east of Okinawa. No American casualties were reported.

SAY MOON MAY BE COVERED BY LAYER OF SAND

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
What the surface of the moon is made of, speedy flashes from your nerves and the importance of children's stories are subjects for science at work:

THE LUNAR BEACH

The moon may be covered by a very thin layer of something like sand, say radio astronomers from the U.S. Naval Research Laboratory.

In fact radio signals picked up from the moon indicate the satellite has several distinct layers of different materials.

The first sand-like layer may be only about a fifth of an inch deep on the average. Below this may be an inch or so of another material which has high electrical conductivity. Beneath this there is apparently an indefinitely deep layer of rock or rock-like material.

FLASH

Your nerves shoot electrical signals through your body at speeds up to 200 miles a second.

Yet nerve fiber itself is 100 million times more resistant to electricity than similar copper wire. And the insulation around nerve fibers is a million times leakier than the sheathing of electrical cable, says Bernhard Katz, London biophysicist in "Scientific American."

In spite of all this, the body's nerve communications work with remarkable efficiency. While each nerve fiber can report only a simple electrical code, there are a great many of these channels to carry messages to the brain. In the trunk of the optic nerve from the eye, for example, more than a million channels carry sight sensations to the brain.

TELL ME A STORY

A simple bedtime-type story can influence a child's behavior, say University of Michigan psychologists.

When they told aggressive four- and five-year olds about a lonely little dog and his search for friends, they found that the story and the loneliness it communicated apparently lowered or controlled the aggressive behavior. The story appeared to have aroused the affiliation needs of the children.

Prof. Jesse E. Gordon said he hopes to study violence, sex, religion and other story themes on radio and television and their effect on children.

"SPLENDOR IN THE GRASS" IS LEADING FILM

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Preview time—

"Splendor in the Grass" is a collaboration of Elia Kazan and William Inge and reflects the merits and limitations of both.

It is an important movie and is bound to be a leading contender in next year's Oscar derby. It provides the emergence of Natalie Wood as a topflight actress and introduces Warren Beatty, an important new actor.

Miss Wood, Beatty and the rest of an excellent cast are the pawns of Kazan and Inge. The two creators are the stars of the film.

GOOD DRAMATIC FORM

Kazan can hit ("On the Waterfront," "East of Eden") and miss ("Baby Doll," "Face in the Crowd"). No director is better at transforming the complexities of modern life into dramatic form. When he fails it is because his characters become harsh and bloodless.

Inge seldom misses (four hits out of five tries on Broadway), but his backward view of small town life on the Plains seems limited.

Male characters, especially fathers, get a bum deal in Inge plays. "Picnic," "Come Back, Little Sheba," "Bus Stop" and "Dark at the Top of the Stairs" are strewn with misfits, failures and mumbler.

HITS JACK POT

"Splendor" hits the jack pot. One father is a brutal, bravado money-maker, the other an inarticulate mumbler. The young men are largely sex-mad.

Still, "Splendor" is an arresting study of an ancient problem—sex before marriage. It has many highly charged scenes and a love story that is engrossing, though more bitter than sweet.

Parents may quarrel with the picture's theme: Natalie's chastity makes her lose Beatty and her mind as well. It is not for children.

SURVIVOR OF HURRICANE IS GIVEN HOME

By CHARLES GREEN
ANGLETON, Tex. (AP) — The shock is gone. Robert Dunn is settled in a routine almost normal for a 15-year-old.

The routine would be normal except Robert takes time each day to thank people by mail for money, clothes and kind words. He personally thanks Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Swanson of Angleton for giving him a home.

LAST 11 RELATIVES

His parents, four brothers and sisters, an aunt, an uncle and three cousins were swept away by the storm's flood waters Sept. 11. They had tried to ride out the hurricane in the Dunn house.

"The last time I saw mom and dad they were holding hands and she was crying," he said.

The Swansons were close friends of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. (Shorty) Dunn.

MAY BE ADOPTED

"The Lord has blessed us with good incomes and we have a large house," Mrs. Swanson said. "We had been thinking of adopting an older boy and we know what kind of a boy Robert is."

Mrs. Swanson, 37, teaches first moved into the former William Neely residence which they recently purchased.

The first meeting of the Brownie Scouts will be held Thursday at 3:30 p.m. in the Fairfield Elementary School, with Mrs. Earl Schmidt and Mrs. Russell Anderson as leaders. New Second graders as well as all other eligibles are invited.

Miss Carolyn Gembe, who is a student nurse at the Harrisburg Polyclinic Hospital, spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gembe.

Miss Anita Inskip, Newtown, visited over the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Inskip. Randall Inskip, a student at York Junior College, also spent the weekend with his family.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Wilkerson have moved from the Mary Wilkerson apartment into their newly constructed home on the Gettysburg road.

Airman James K. Sanders has land Air Force Base to the Lowery base for technical training. He received his mail AB James K. Sanders, AF13729984, 3436 Squadron (Pats), Lowery AFB 30, Colorado.

Mr. Howe started his herd a few years ago with a nucleus of heifers from Kimberton Farms, Phoenixville, Pa. Dams of these have been on test year after year, many with over 10,000 lbs. milk (immature). He further strengthened his herd with the purchase of five of the top at the '60 Windy Hill Sale and several more at the State Sale the same year. All of these with good records, type and strong udders.

There won't be many more opportunities this fall to have such a fine selection of fresh cows and heavy springers which are bound to add the needed additional income which will be so welcome when the highest milk prices are in effect.

Intermediate Girl Scout Troop 72 met recently with leaders Mrs. Ralph Ohler and Mrs. Charles Shorb. The girls discussed the planting of the golden blossoms for 1962. The group decided to present a skit at the program for the community show on Friday. Parts were assigned to the girls for the skit and for the flag ceremony. After the meeting the girls surprised Mrs. Ohler with a birthday cake and a gift for her birthday which was Sunday.

A meeting of the leaders of Girl Scout and Brownie Troops was held Monday evening with Mrs. John Chatlos, neighborhood chairman presiding. Each troop will plant some yellow flowers during October to commemorate the 50th anniversary of Girl Scouting in 1962. Each troop will select a plot to plant some place in town. The week of October 31 has been designated planting week. Brownie Fly-Up ceremonies and a Court of Awards will be held October 20 in St. Euphemia's hall. The next neighborhood meeting will be held in Thurmont on October 24 at the home of Mrs. Charlotte Wierman.

STATE PLANS MORE RESTS ON HIGHWAYS

HARRISBURG (AP)—Pennsylvania has assigned top priority to a long-range program of developing adequate roadside rests and information centers, a Highway Department official said today.

Fred S. Poorman, deputy secretary and chief engineer, said the 1961 legislature's approval of a bill broadening the scope of the program "will be of great benefit to the motoring public."

A new law signed by Gov. Lawrence authorizes the Highway Department to spend as much as $12,000 on acquiring sites and construction for each roadside rest. The ceiling previously was $8,000. There is no ceiling on spending for rests along the federal interstate system.

There are about 40 roadside rests on state highways at present. The department expects the number eventually will soar to 134.

ENCOURAGE TRAVEL

The development of the rest stops is part of an over-all program undertaken by Gov. Lawrence's administration to encourage travel and tourism in Pennsylvania.

Last June, Lawrence disclosed long-range plans for establishing information centers at rest stops along the interstate system in Pennsylvania.

"This project is still in the planning stage," Poorman said in an interview. "We expect to confer soon with officials of the U.S. Bureau of Public Roads on aspects of it."

The bureau now prohibits sales of merchandise at rest stops on the interstate system.

Pennsylvania wants to find out, however, if it would prohibit dispensing of literature at the stops, Poorman said.

Wedding

Butterfield—Robinson

Saturday afternoon at 4 p.m. in the presence of the immediate families and a few close friends, Miss Judith Marie Robinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy S. Robinson, Massapequa, L.I., N. Y., became the bride of Lt. John Drumm Butterfield, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Butterfield, R. 6. The double-ring ceremony was performed in the Grace Episcopal Chapel, Massapequa, by the rector, Rev. John M. Haight.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attired in a full-length gown of ivory satin embroidered with sequins, and a shoulder-length tulle veil attached to a wreath of stephanotis. She carried a cascade bouquet of stephanotis and white orchids.

The bride's three sisters, dressed in gowns of blue and white or-gandy, wearing blue tulle veils and carrying colonial bouquets, attended her. Miss Linda Robinson was the maid of honor, Miss Candy Robinson served as bridesmaid and Miss Holly Robinson was junior bridesmaid.

FATHER IS BEST MAN

Mr. Butterfield served as best man for his son and the usher was William A. Woods, Carlisle. The bride's mother was at-

BOYLE'S Grab Bag

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

How much food does the average American consume in his lifetime? About 100,000 pounds—or 50 tons.

X-memo to JFK: President George Washington's first federal budget was written on a single sheet of paper.

We sometimes feel the price of everything is constantly going up, but there are some exceptions. Example: The first bicycle built in this country weighed 70 pounds and cost $313.

COLORFUL MENUS

Geography lesson: Everyone knows Paris is the world's largest French-speaking city, but can you name the second largest? It is Montreal, Canada.

Color peeps up the human appetite, and it also influences the appetites of some insects, too. Researchers have found that horse flies prefer red to white cattle, while ordinary stable flies, given a choice of menu, settle on black cattle.

The nation's biggest single user of pencils is the New York Stock Exchange. It buys more than a million yearly.

Burden in the bottle: Absenteeism as a result of alcoholism costs U.S. industry a billion dollars annually. The average alcoholic misses 23 work days a year.

EXPERT EXPOSED

Our quotable notables: "You never know what you can do without until you try."—Franklin Pierce Adams.

Authors don't always know what they are talking about. Jean-Jacques Rousseau, French philosopher, achieved fame with "Emile," a guide on the proper education of children. Yet when each of his own five children arrived, he promptly sent it to a foundling home!

Old remedies: U.S. frontiersmen once treated earache by sprinkling drops of genuine skunk oil into the sore ear. The real problem: First you had to catch the skunk.

Executive signs: On the desk of Irwin H. Kramer, hotel president here: "To make dreams come tired in a beige brocaded silk dress with brown accessories and wore a corsage of green butterfly orchids. The groom's mother wore a black wool suit with black accessories and a beige colored orchid corsage.

Preceding the ceremony a brief organ recital was presented by the church organist.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the social room of the church.

The bride is a graduate of Massapequa High School and attended Oswego State Teachers College. The groom graduated from Mercersburg Academy and from Syracuse University. On September 26, he was commissioned a second lieutenant in the USAF at Medina Base, San Antonio, Tex. Following a three-week period of special training at Stead AFB, Reno, Nev., he has been ordered to Rees AFB, Lubbock, Tex., for a year of flight training.

The couple will be at home after November 20 in Lubbock, Tex.

true, stay wide awake!"

LIBRARY DEFINITION

It isn't a sign you are neurotic if you demand a quiet atmosphere in which to work. Psychologists have found neurotics usually work better amid noise. The sound distracts them from their own mental and emotional conflicts.

Definitions that stick in the mind: "Library—a do-it-yourself university."

Clever bruins: Bears don't smoke cigarettes, but they do carry their own natural filters. They often strain foreign objects out of water by drinking it through the hair on their paws.

Wisecrack of the week: "Football is played only during months containing 'rah!'"—Arnold Glasow.

WORST DEFEND

History lesson: Alf Landon carried only two states in 1936, but the most badly defeated major party presidential candidate in U.S. history was John Quincy Adams. In 1829 he got only one electoral vote, losing to James Monroe 231-10-1.

Small consolations in a worrisome world: Man seems to hate himself more than he does his brother. Despite the widespread increase in violent crimes, statistics show twice as many people commit suicide as are murdered.

Help for housewives: The U.S. Department of Agriculture is developing a new means of dehy-

ARMY TO TRY NIKE ZEUS ON NEXT WEEKEND

By FRED S. HOFFMAN

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Army plans to try again next weekend to fire its Nike Zeus antimissile out over the Pacific. The test, probably on Saturday, will come at a time when the Army is bidding anew for money to start limited production of parts for the controversial system.

Nearly a month ago, on Sept. 9, Army technicians made their first effort to shoot the Nike Zeus from Point Mugu, Calif. Shortly after the missile shot skyward it exploded.

MENTION $100 MILLION

Although rebuffed repeatedly in the past, the Army is known to be seeking again to win an allo-

It was Finley Peter Dunne who observed, "The past always looks better than it was; it's only pleasant because it isn't here."

cation in next year's defense budget for starting production of long-range items for the Zeus system.

Officials declined to say how much money was being sought, but it appeared likely the request might be about $100 million. The Army hoped for that amount a year ago but was turned down.

In addition to production money, the Army is asking for about $200 million in the 1963 fiscal year for further development work on the Zeus, the most advanced U.S. antimissile system. This would bring to about $1.4 billion the amount applied to Zeus research and development.

HAD GRAVE DOUBTS

Testifying before congressional groups earlier this year, Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara spoke of "widespread doubts as to whether the Nike Zeus system should ever be deployed."

He said then that the system, mostly above ground, is vulnerable to ballistic missile attack. He also indicated he was not convinced that the Zeus could work effectively against enemy missiles screened by decoys.

Since then, resumption of Soviet nuclear testing has given rise to speculation that the Soviets may be working on an antimissile system.

KONEV WARNS U. S. CHIEF IN WEST EUROPE

By GEORGE BOULTWOOD
BERLIN (AP) — Marshal Ivan S. Konev, commander of Soviet forces in East Berlin, has warned the U.S. Army commander in Europe against taking any action that might upset prospects of East-West talks on Berlin.

This was announced Tuesday night by a Soviet Embassy spokesman. There were reports the tough, aging marshal was complaining about the resumption of U.S. military police patrols on the autobahn linking West Berlin with West Germany — 110 miles away.

The Soviet spokesman said Konev's letter was sent to Gen. Bruce C. Clarke, commander of the U.S. Army in Europe, under whose orders the patrols were resumed Sept. 23 after a nine-year lapse.

FOLLOWED INCIDENT
The patrols were resumed after two U.S. soldiers were detained on the autobahn for six hours by East German Communist police. The action was, in effect, a warning to East Germany to keep hands off U.S. military traffic to Berlin.

Konev took the hint that any undue steps by U.S. authorities might rock the boat and ruin prospects for a peaceful settlement of the Berlin issue, the Soviet spokesman said.

Former commander of the Warsaw Pact armies, Konev was pulled from retirement for the East German assignment in August after tension rose over Berlin and the Soviet threat to sign a separate peace treaty with East Germany. Such a treaty, the Soviets warn, would place Allied lifelines to Berlin under the control of the East Germans.

Social Security

Q. Does a man of 69 have to quit work entirely to collect social security benefits?

A. No. You can earn up to $1,200 and receive all your benefits for the year. If you earn over $1,200 some of your benefits will be withheld during the year. Your social security office will be glad to give you a free pamphlet, "21 Questions and Answers About Social Security Payments." This pamphlet was revised following passage of the 1961 social security amendments and contains up-to-date information on how earnings affect benefits.

Q. I am past retirement age and still working. If I stop working, will my income from investments affect my right to receive social security benefits?

A. No. The only income that will affect the receipt of your social security benefits is earnings income received from employment or self-employment.

Q. My wife and I are receiving social security benefits and we both work part time. Can we earn up to $1,200 between us and still get our benefits for the year?

A. Each of you can earn up to $1,200 in a calendar before any benefits are withheld.

Q. I am 67 years old. I expect to take a leave of absence from my job for four months, during which I will receive no salary. Am I eligible for social security payments for these four months?

A. Yes. You can receive benefits for any month in which you do not earn over $100 in wages, no matter how much you earn during the whole year. If you have already filed a social security application at some time in the past and know you are eligible for benefits, you do so before these benefits can be paid.

Clarke's Heidelberg headquarters confirmed that the general had received a message from Konev and had answered it.

SAYS JUDAISM MAY BE GOING TO EXTINCTION

By JULES LOH
NEW YORK (AP)—A prominent rabbi, anticipating that his views might be "criticized as crass heresy," believes Judaism is headed for extinction unless it veers sharply from what he considers its present course.

Rabbi Phillip Sigal of Beth Abraham Synagogue in Bridgeton, N.J., says the trend nowadays is to regard Jews as a nation or a people rather than simply a religious fellowship, and that this "tragic shift from religion to political science in Jewish life and thought is the first real step Jews have taken to commit suicide."

Rabbi Sigal is founder of the Bridgeton chapter of the National Conference of Christians and Jews and a participant in the Continuing Conference on Conservative (Jewish) Ideology. He outlines his views in an article scheduled to appear next week in "Issues," a publication of the American Council for Judaism. Rabbi Sigal is not a member of the council.

OPPOSING VIEWS
Rabbi Sigal takes particular issue with Israeli Prime Minister David Ben-Gurion who views true Zionism as nothing less than "aliyah"—emigration of all Jews to Israel.

"Even if America is not our Zion," says Rabbi Sigal, "it certainly is our Babilonia. The whole controversy ought to be put to rest." His reference is to an ancient rabbinic quarrel between the two Jewish centers.

But Rabbi Sigal is equally distressed over what he considers a rising spirit of nationalism among Jews, spurred by the success of the nation of Israel.

Rabbi Sigal's own idea is that Jews share a bond of religion, nothing more.

HARRISBURG (AP) — State Secretary of Commerce William R. Davlin was reported in good condition Thursday at Harrisburg Hospital where he is undergoing treatments for throat cancer.

The 49-year-old Davlin was admitted to the hospital last Friday night. He has been receiving cancer treatments since last February.

At that time, he entered Harrisburg Hospital, then was transferred to Johns Hopkins Hospital in Baltimore for six weeks.

Since then, he has carried out his state duties while continuing to have periodic checkups.
